1. It can be said that the Russians have practically colonized Hungary. All military strong-points, air fields, barracks, road centers and railroad centers, the offices of the ministries, commercial offices of all types, and the private lives of the citizens are held under the strictest control. A revolution without strong outside help would be suicidal for the Hungarians.
2. In addition to the AVH (Hungarian political police), control is exercised by 1,240 Soviet secret agents sent from Moscow two years ago. Their chief is Major Akilin (fnu). The current duty of these agents is to hunt down agents of foreign intelligence services [redacted] and clean up the Hungarian Army of unreliable elements.
3. More than 3,000 Russian technicians, engineers, physicians and so on, at present in Budapest, Debrecen, Miskolc, Tatabánya, Székesfehérvár, Győr, Pépa, Veszprém, Eger are also actively engaged in the political control of the country.
4. [redacted]
[redacted] the Soviets intend to make Hungary a gigantic assembly area, from which a blow can be delivered in any direction.
